Terms and Conditions:

- When a student is to be withdrawn from Inaburra School a minimum of one full term's notice must be provided to the Principal in writing. One term's fees will be charged in lieu of notice of withdrawal.
- Fees are charged in two billings – in January and June each year. Payment is due in full within 14 days of account issuance. Late Payment Fees apply. Details below.
- Year 12 will be billed two semesters regardless of when they finish attending the school.
- The schedule of fees is inclusive of all tuition costs, including camps, excursions etc. Variation occurs because of the different curriculum activities, as applied to the respective year.
- Other items charged separately to the schedule of fees may include Global Education Elective Tours, TVET costs, Year 6 farewell, Year 10 and Year 12 formals, equipment which attracts GST, some elective choices for major works, additional excursions, GST on food consumed at camps, etc. or any other fee which the School may determine.
- Tax Deductibility: Only Building Fund donations are tax deductible. The compulsory levies are not tax deductible.
- The Sibling Discount may not necessarily apply at the same level of discount in subsequent years.
- A student's enrolment may be discontinued if fees remain unpaid. In addition, a student may not be eligible to participate in non-compulsory school events (such as Band Tours, Global Ed trips etc.) unless tuition fees have been paid.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

	BPAY® is our preferred option and now includes payment by Credit Card. There may be a transaction cost and loyalty rewards may not apply for some card providers. ® Registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518	Billers Code and Reference Number is located at the top of the invoice and on the last page. Contact your participating financial institution to make payment from your preferred bank account or credit card.
 Internet/Credit Card	The school will issue a payment request via email with each invoice issued. This request includes a link which will provide direct debit and Visa, Mastercard or Amex payment options. Surcharges apply.	Your invoice and statement can be accessed via the parent payment portal and payment can also be made there via direct debit or credit card. Inaburra School Building fund offers tax deductibility for voluntary donations. Funds are utilised to improve facilities for the student community. Should you wish to donate to the Building Fund, please contact accountant@inaburra.nsw.edu.au for details.

The school does not offer payment by instalments. Families seeking instalment arrangements should contact Edstart (details above).

Cheques: Cheques will no longer be accepted as a method of payment.

No cash payments: Due to WorkCover Health and Safety requirements, we do not accept cash.

Late Payment Fees:

If you are having difficulties in making payments by the due date, please contact schoolfees@inaburra.nsw.edu.au.

Outstanding accounts (any account with an outstanding balance past the payment due date) will be charged a late fee of $100 per semester, regardless of the amount owing.

Overdue accounts take up a great deal of time and effort for our support staff. We seek your support in ensuring the prompt payment of fees by the due date. The late fees help cover interest costs and the costs involved in collecting and following up late payments.

The School reserves the right to undertake external debt collection should fees remain outstanding beyond 90 days, and all collection costs incurred will be the responsibility of the debtor. These costs can escalate quickly, so prompt payment is recommended.
